Technical analysis

The Bajaj Finance Ltd. chart on the 15-minute time frame indicates a recovery after a sharp decline. The stock has rebounded from its recent low around ₹7,245, supported by increased buying volume. The Supertrend indicator has turned green, and the price is now trading above the 20-period EMA, signaling a potential upward momentum. The stock is showing signs of strength as it has crossed the key resistance level near ₹7,300. If the price sustains above this range, it could indicate the continuation of the bullish trend. So we recommended to buy Bajaj Finance 7400 call option.
