Technical analysis

The chart reflects the stock showing signs of recovery and trading above the 20-period EMA, which is providing strong support near ₹140. The Supertrend indicator aligns with a bullish stance, and the price is consolidating near ₹150 with potential for upward momentum. If we look at the fundamentals the 3 years CAGR growth of sales and profit stands at 19% and 13% respectively. Hence we recommended to buy IRFC.
